

THE
riverside
THEATRE presents

Cultural Animator's Series

New Street Poets

When the forces of gentrification threaten to redevelop Café Home, center of a vibrant artistic neighborhood, six dynamic poets must struggle to keep their community alive. This exciting spoken word drama confronts the human cost of progress in the 21st century.

Written by New Street Poets Collective | Directed by Mel Williams

Reginald S. Burch

LeDerick Horne

Isis Phoenix

Michelle Seabreeze

Scott Tarazevits

Justin Woo

MAY 9 at 8:00 PM | GEN.ADMISSION: $15 | CHILDREN 12-UNDER +SENIORS: $12

Theatre of the Oppressed Workshop: Urban Community vs Gentrification

Through the art of Theatre of the Oppressed examine what "is" and what can "be".

No theatre experience necessary, just a concerned voice.

Facilitated by Jeremiah Drake

MAY 10 at 7:00 PM | FREE

TICKETS: 212-870-6784 THERIVERSIDETHEATRE.ORG

91 Claremont at 120th St. New York, NY 10027

 THE
riverside
THEATRE presents

Cultural Animator's Series

H brings Shakespeare's Henry IV, parts 1 & 2 into the 21st Century examining the anatomy of power through a hip hop prism. This contemporary urban adaptation of the bard's chilling words questions the divine right to rule and the deep ambiguities of power.

Conceived and Directed by Kaia Calhoun

Post performance Theatre of the Oppressed Forum exploring Power Dynamics.

MAY 16 + 17 at 8:00 PM | GEN.ADMISSION: $15 | CHILDREN 12-UNDER +SENIORS: $12

Theatre of the Oppressed Workshop: The Anatomy of Power

Through the art of Theatre of the Oppressed examine what "is" and what can "be".

No theatre experience necessary, just a concerned voice.

Facilitated by Jeremiah Drake

MAY 24 at 7:00 PM | FREE

TICKETS: 212-870-6784 THERIVERSIDETHEATRE.ORG

91 Claremont at 120th St. New York, NY 10027

Axes to the Roots

A multi-disciplinary exploration of the lives and conditions of residents who live in homeless shelters, Axes puts a human face on a forgotten issue and demonstrates the indomitable human spirit in the midst of dire circumstances.

Conceived and Directed by Kaia Calhoun

MAY 30 + 31 at 8:00 PM | GEN.ADMISSION: $15 | CHILDREN 12-UNDER + SENIORS: $12

Theatre of the Oppressed Workshop: The Face of American Homelessness
Through the art of Theatre of the Oppressed examine what "is" and what can "be".
No theatre experience necessary, just a concerned voice.

Facilitated by Jeremiah Drake

MAY 30 + 31 Post performances | FREE

Artists for Peace

In collaboration with Bernier Dance

Dance, poetry and jazz are blended in a stirring evening grounded in the provocative stories of Maxine Hong Kingston's Veterans of War, Veterans of Peace.

Featuring Bernier Dance, Janice Brenner and Doug Wahlberg Band
David Beck, Brian Tracy, Marcus Ray Estrada, Tiffany Esteb Lucille King, Reanna Muskovitz, and Ted Yudain

Portion of proceeds will benefit New Era Veterans Residence

$100 – Room for a single night | $50 – Groceries | $25 – MetroCard | $15 – Phone cards